

With Jesus' Help

I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength.

(Philippians 4:13 paraphrased)

Little jobs can be done by little people. Sometimes, though, we need to do a bigger task that may seem too hard for us. Maybe it's a chore we have never done before, or we're still learning how to do it right.

It's important not to give up when something is new or seems difficult at first.

Here's a little secret: Jesus can help us do big jobs too. Jesus promises that He will help us to do all things. If something seems too hard for us to do, we can ask Jesus for His help.

Jesus can give us the patience to learn something new, especially when we may have to try our new skill a few times before we know how to do it well. When we ask Jesus for His help, and then do our best, we are able to learn many new and wonderful skills.

Learning is an exciting part of growing up, and Jesus wants to help us in all that we do.

Action

Here is a simple rhyme you can recite whenever you are learning something new:

When a job is too hard for me,
And I don't know what to do,
With Jesus' help I can do all things—
Oh, this I know is true!
