

X Is for eXample

Being a good example to others means choosing to do the right thing so that your actions show others you care for them.

