Coloring Page: Draw Others In

Part of being a good friend is by drawing others in to the things you do. Friendship grows when you reach out to others by thinking about things that will make them happy. In making others happy, you too can find happiness.