A Cool Shade

Friendships give comfort and support.
A good friendship is like the cool shade of a tree on a hot summer day.

When something happens that is difficult to handle, having a friend to comfort and support you is a wonderful thing.

In friendships, sometimes you shelter and protect your friends, and other times, they shelter and protect you.
