

Picnic at the Beach

(John 21:3–17)

After Jesus' death and resurrection, Simon Peter said to the disciples with him, "I'm going fishing."

"We'll go with you," they replied. That night they caught nothing. The next morning, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples didn't know that it was Him.

Jesus asked them, "Do you have any fish?" They answered that they hadn't caught any.

He said, "Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and you will find the fish." They did what He said, and the net became so heavy from the 153 large fish caught that they couldn't pull it in.

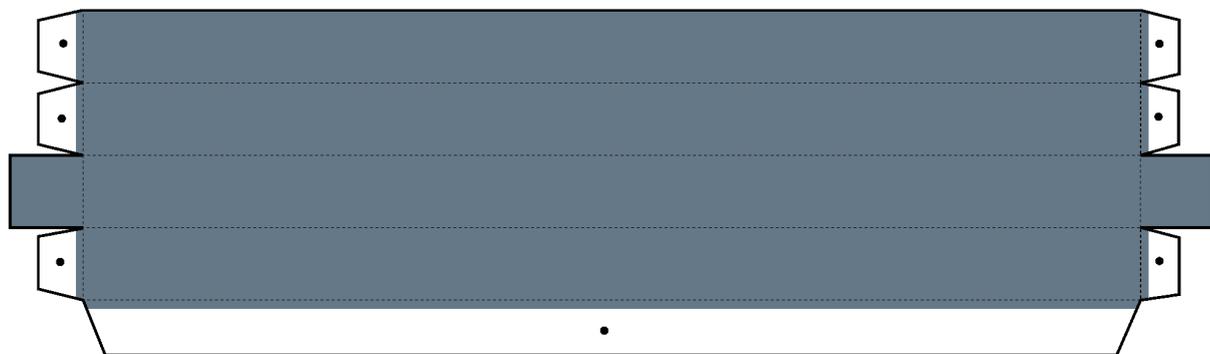

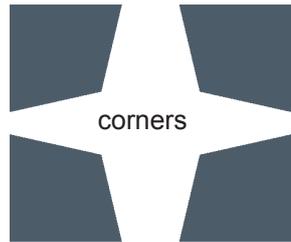

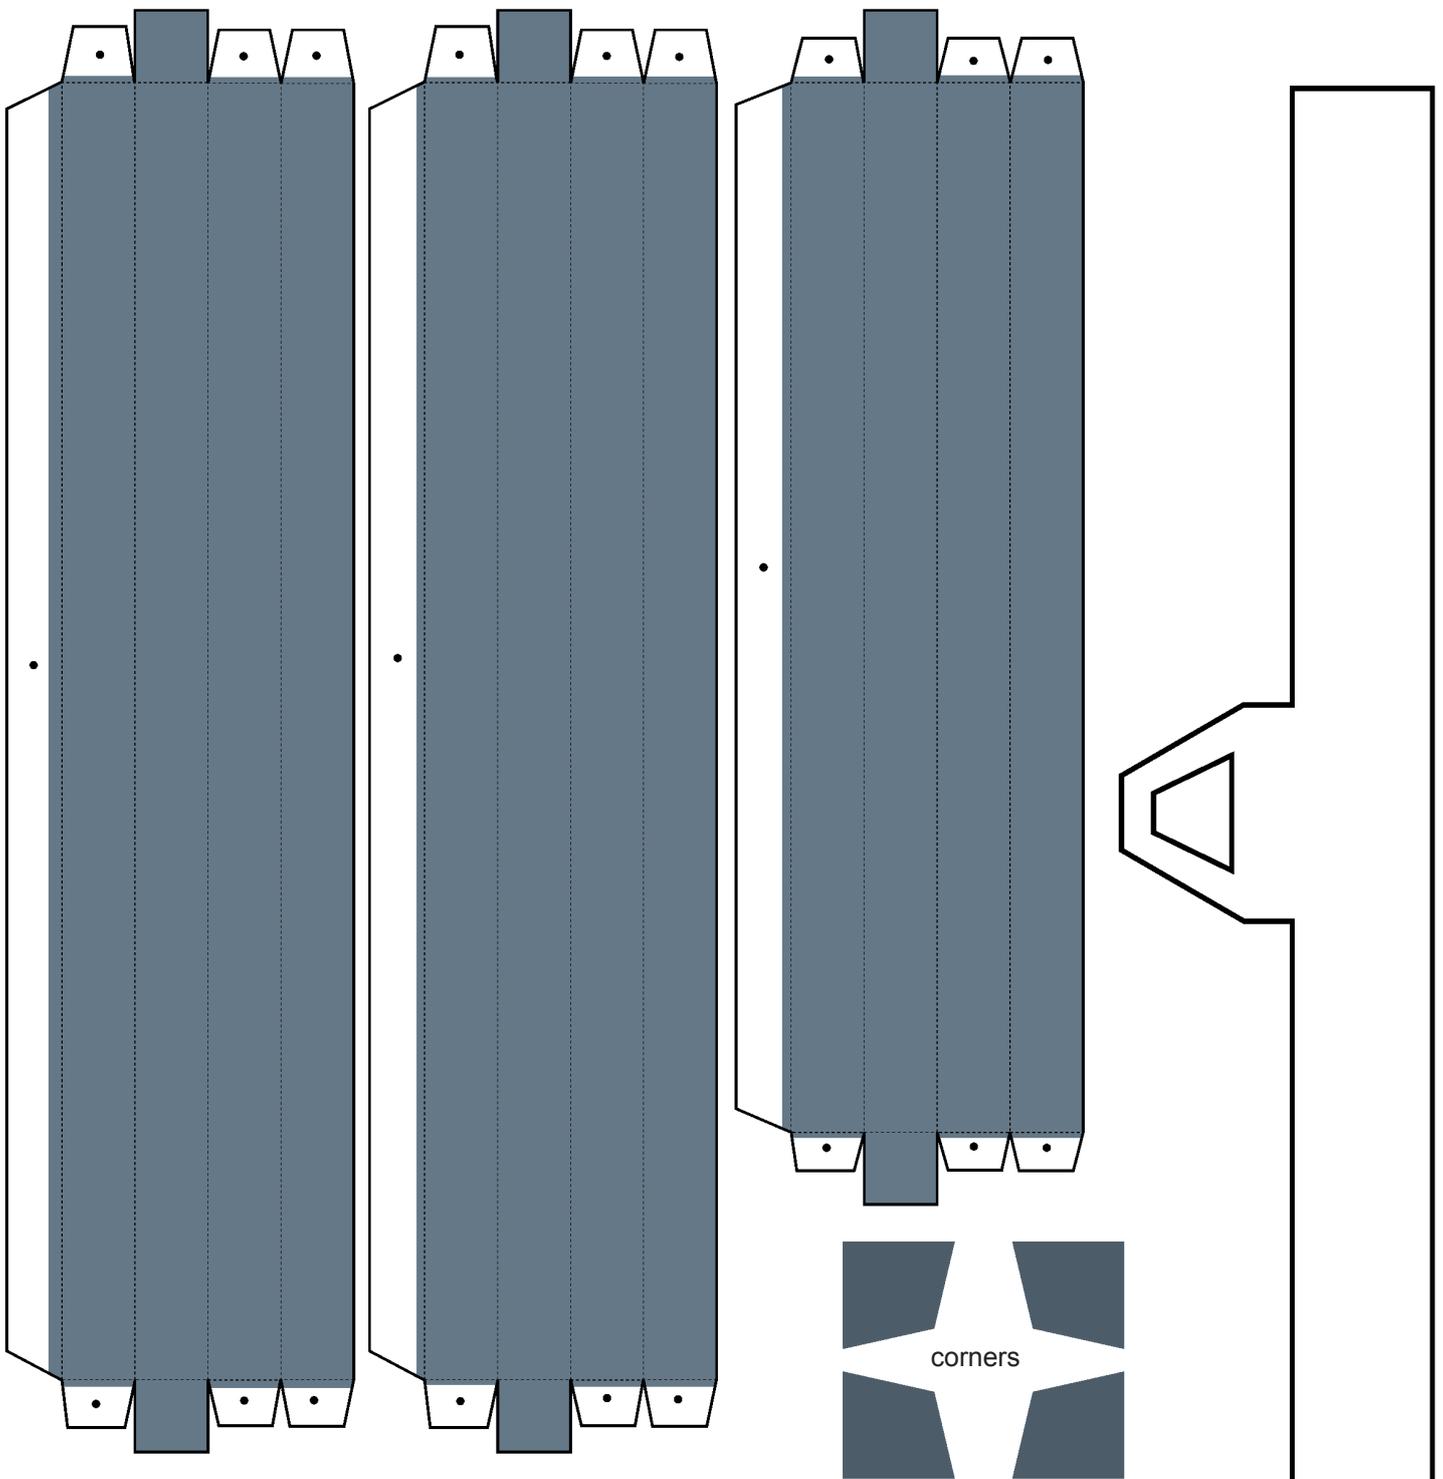

When arriving at the shore, the disciples saw a fire of coals and fish being cooked, as well as bread. "Come and eat," Jesus said to them.

Now the disciples knew it was the Lord.

Jesus then gave them the bread and fish to eat. Afterwards, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me more than these?"

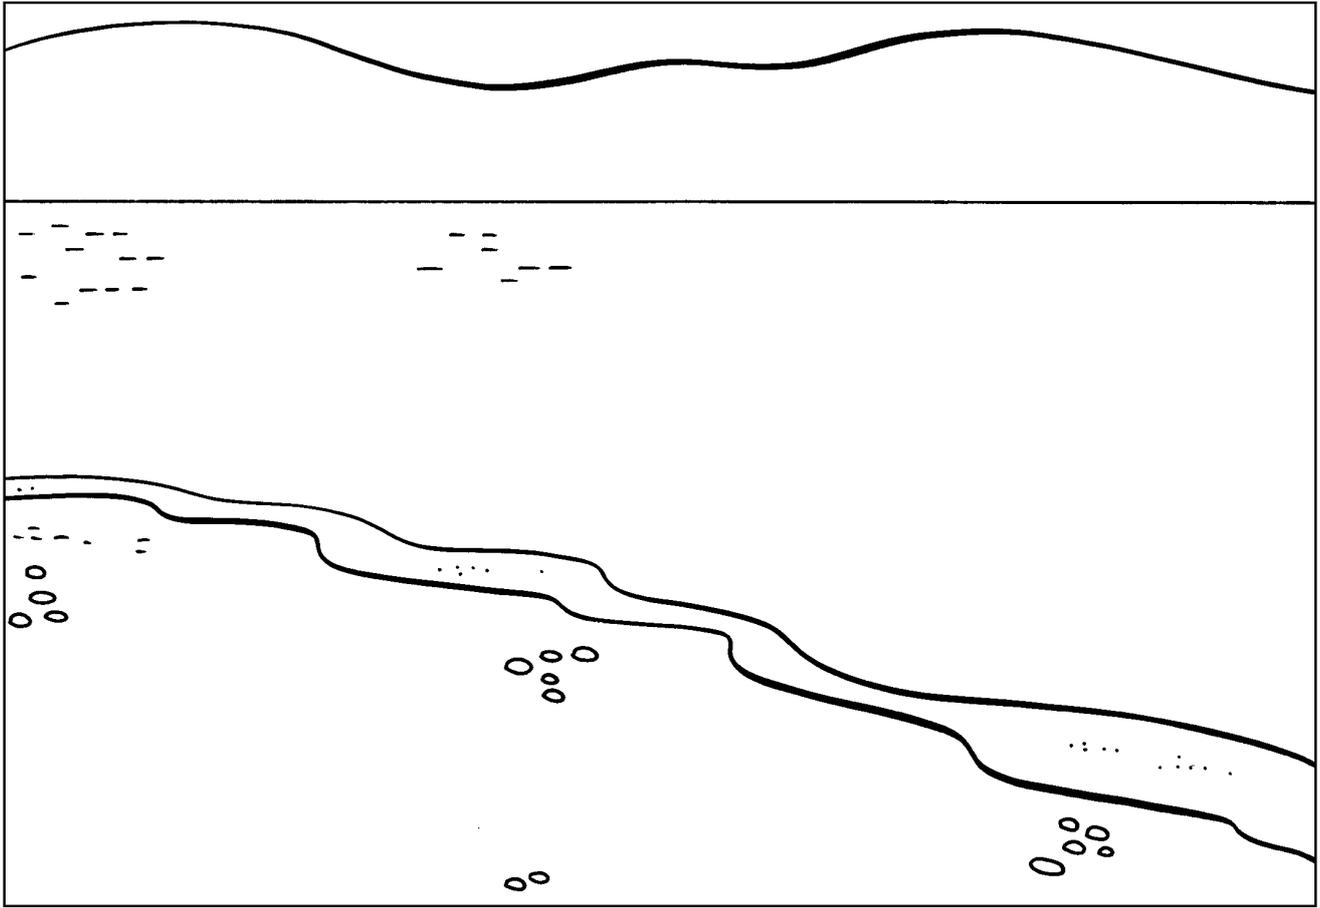

Simon Peter answered, "Yes, Lord, You know that I love You." Jesus said to him, "Feed My lambs."
