

Apostle Paul's Nephew

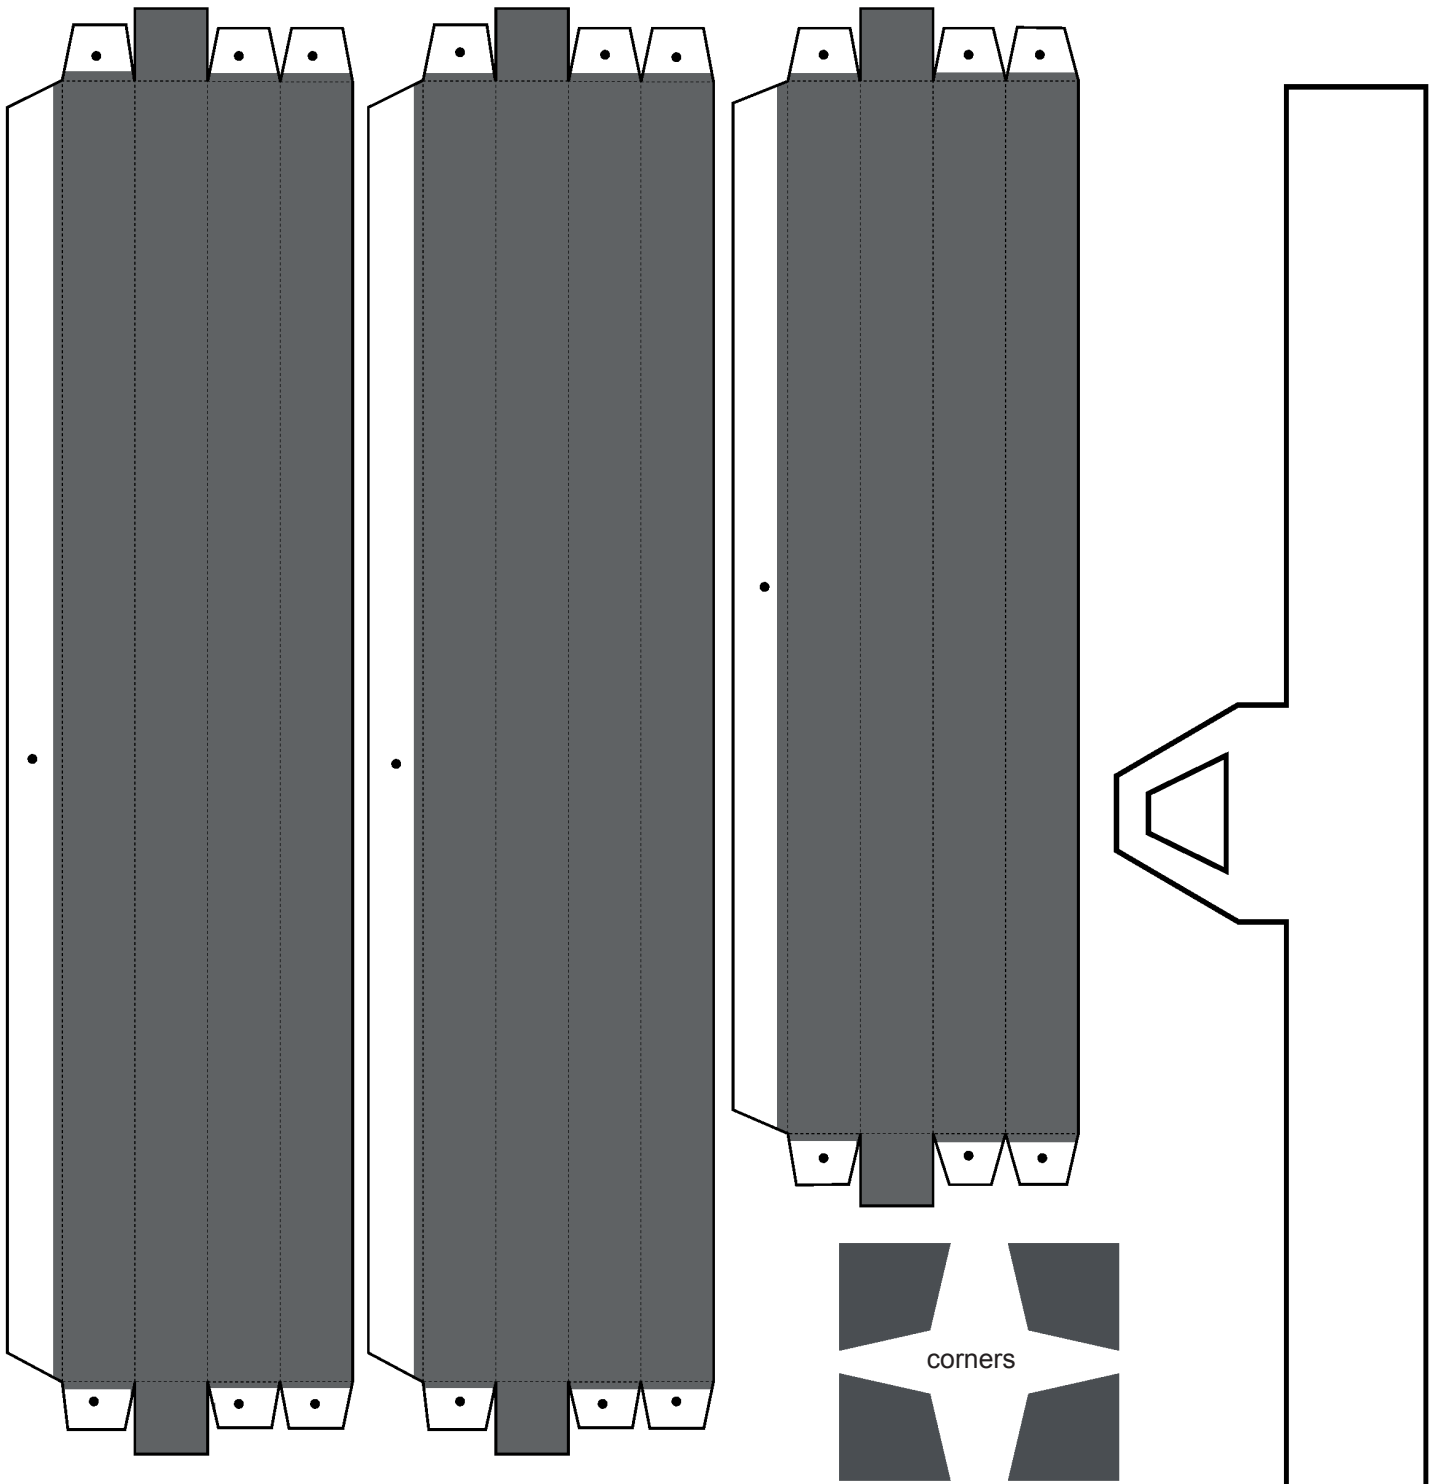

Based on Acts 23:10–24.

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry with him that they wanted to kill him. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, and then kill him on the way.

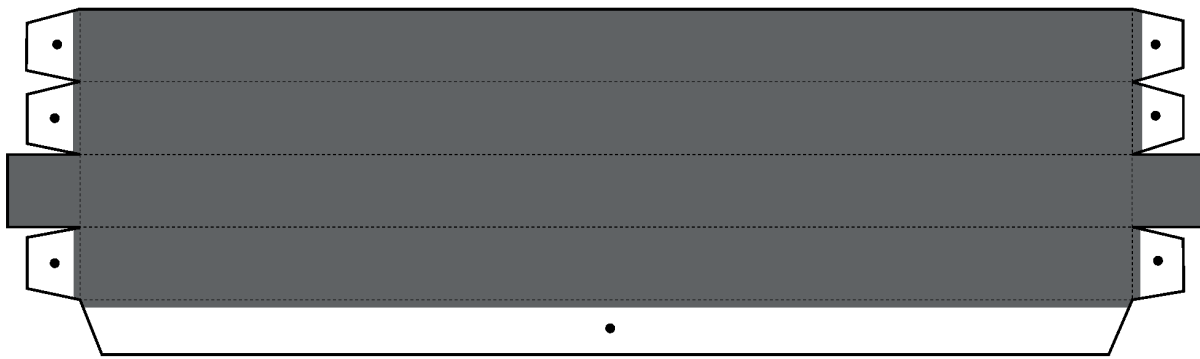

But a young man, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He went immediately to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed what the boy told him.

The commander called for a large escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night. Paul was safe due to his nephew's courage!

part to glue on the back

frame parts

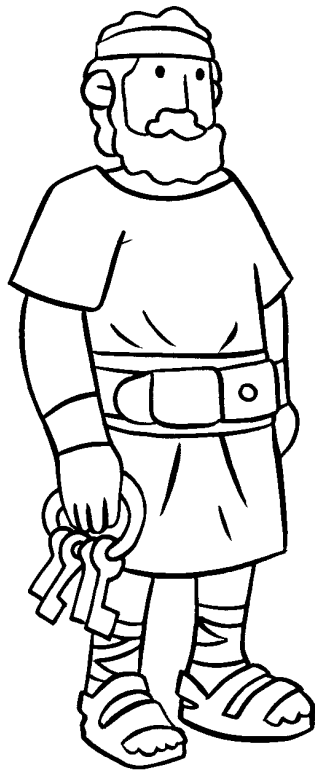

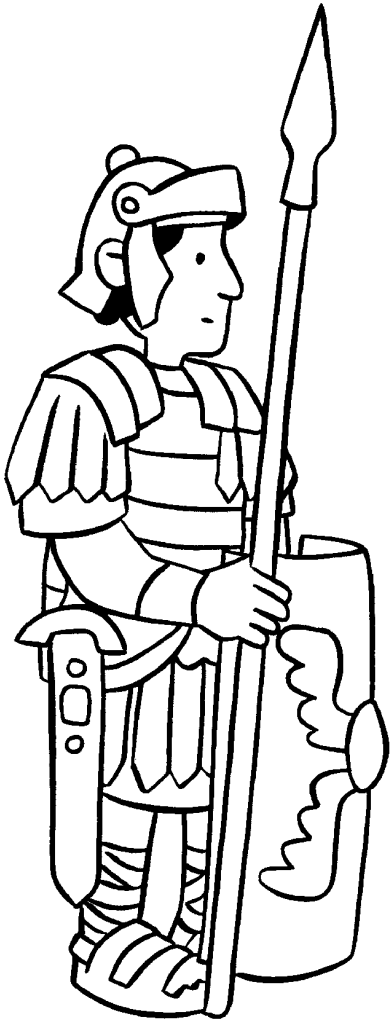

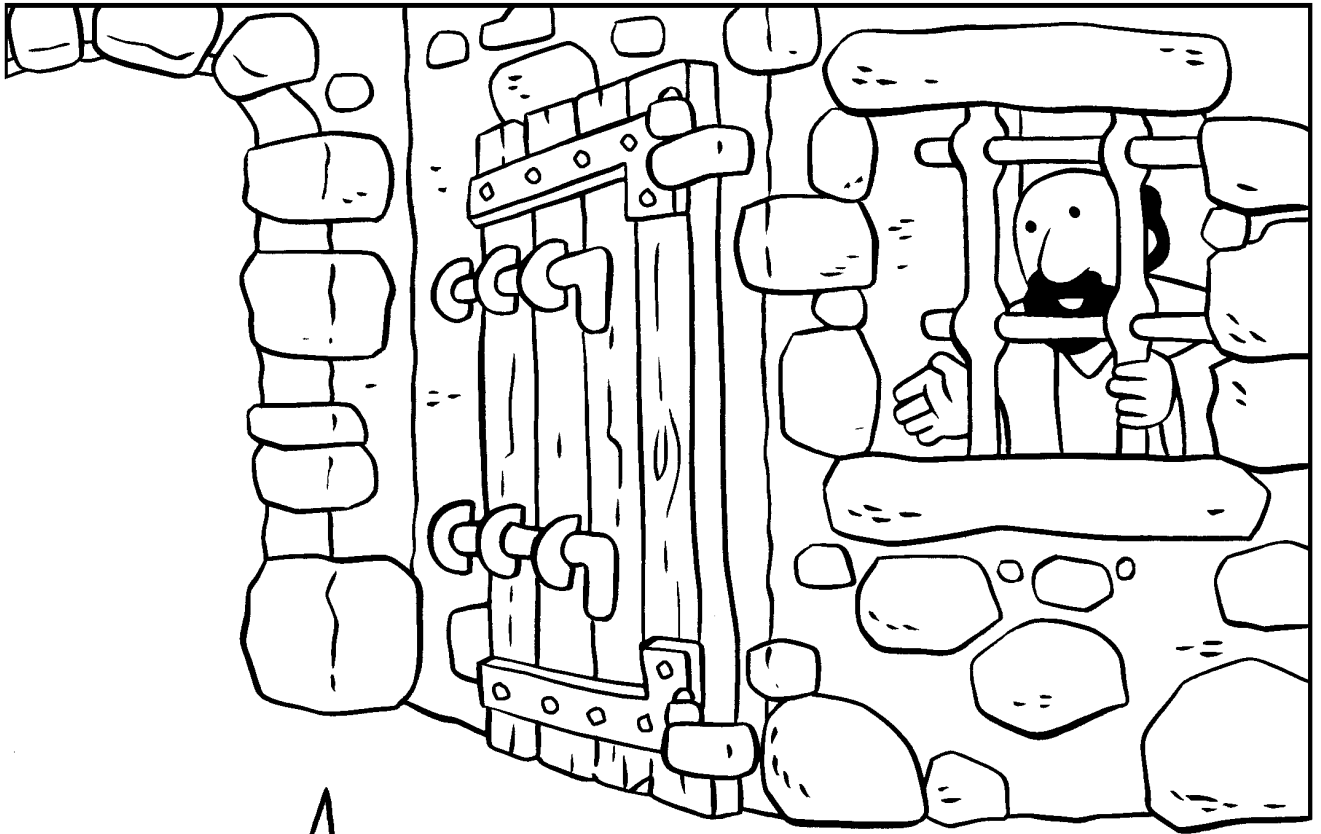

Apostle Paul's Nephew

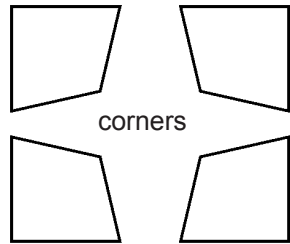

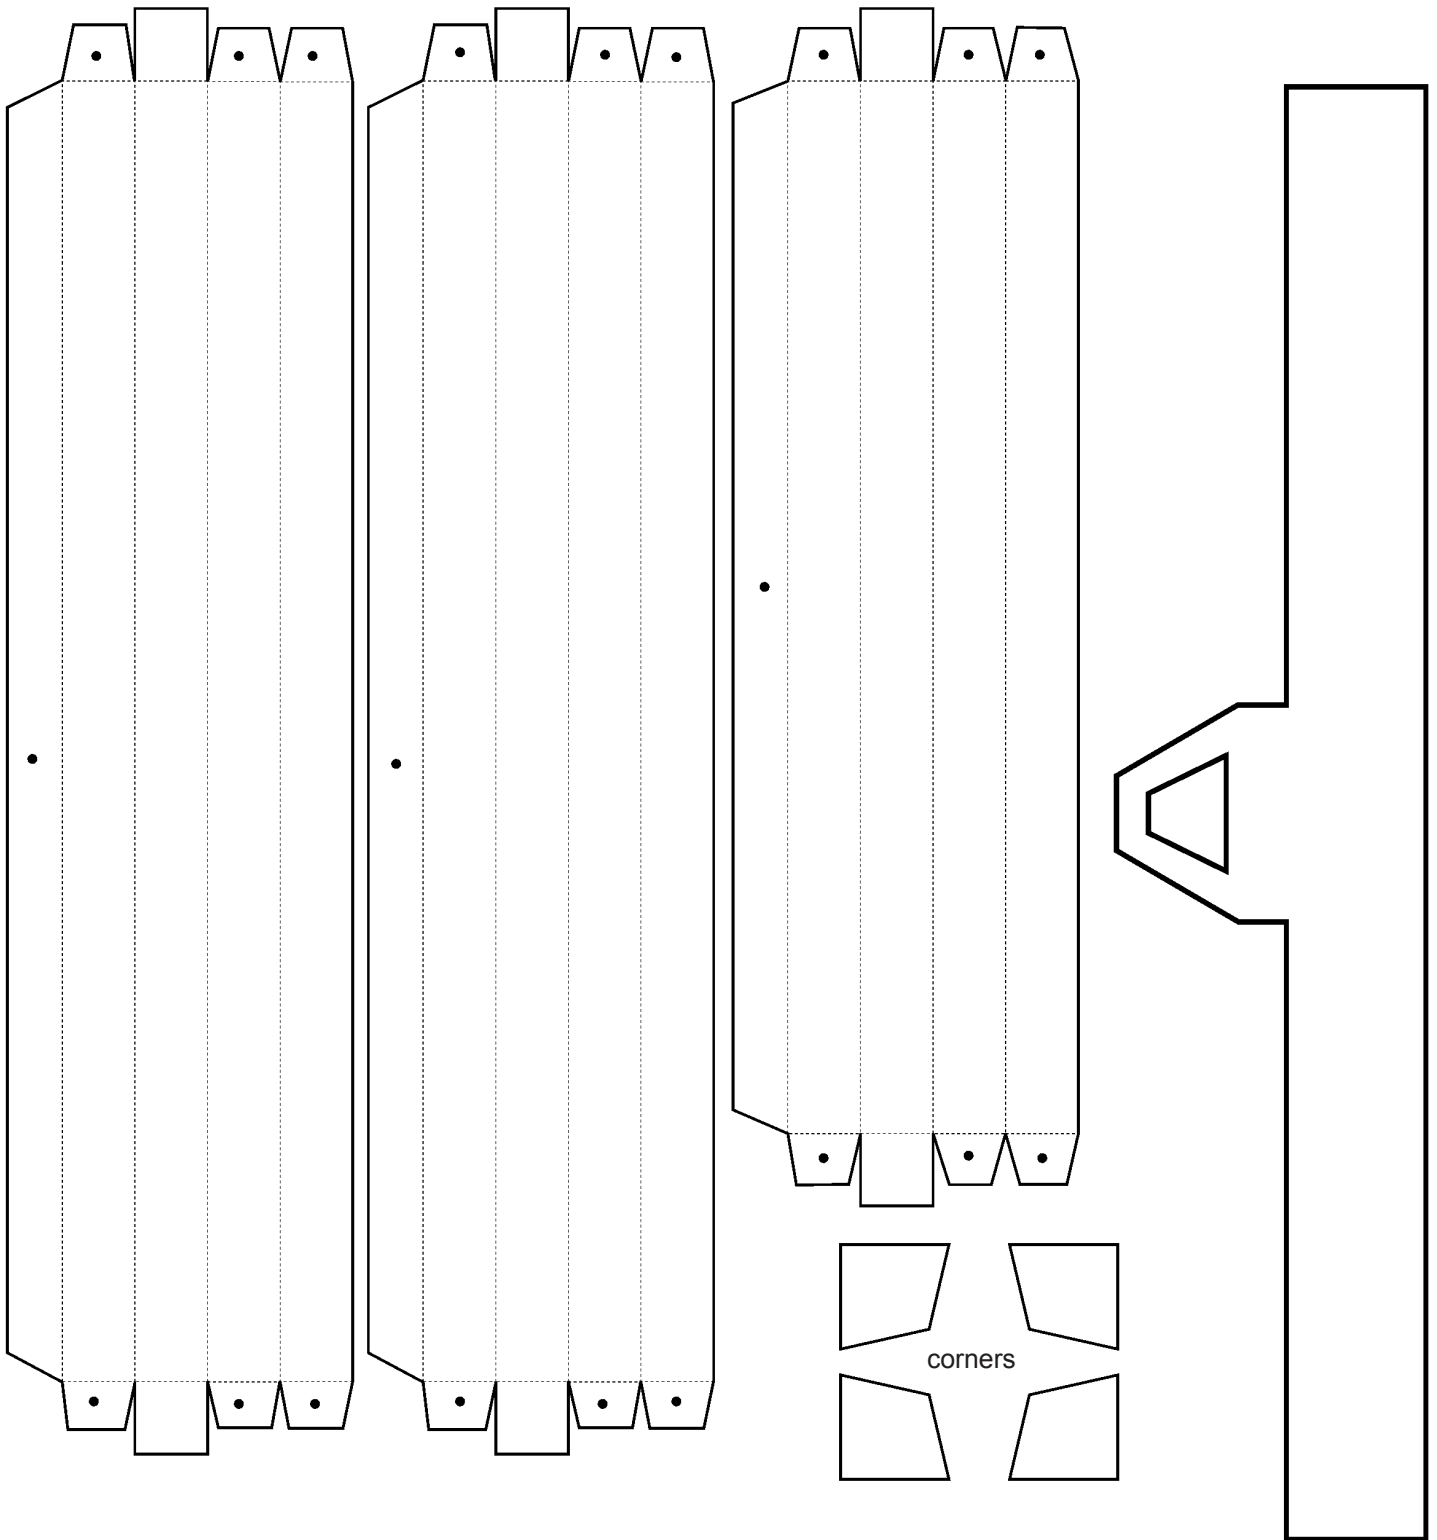

Based on Acts 23:10–24.

While Paul was in prison in Jerusalem, the religious leaders were so angry with him that they wanted to kill him. More than forty men assembled themselves and made a vow that they would not eat or drink until they had killed Paul. They devised a plan to trick the Roman commander to bring Paul from prison to the Jewish council, and then kill him on the way.

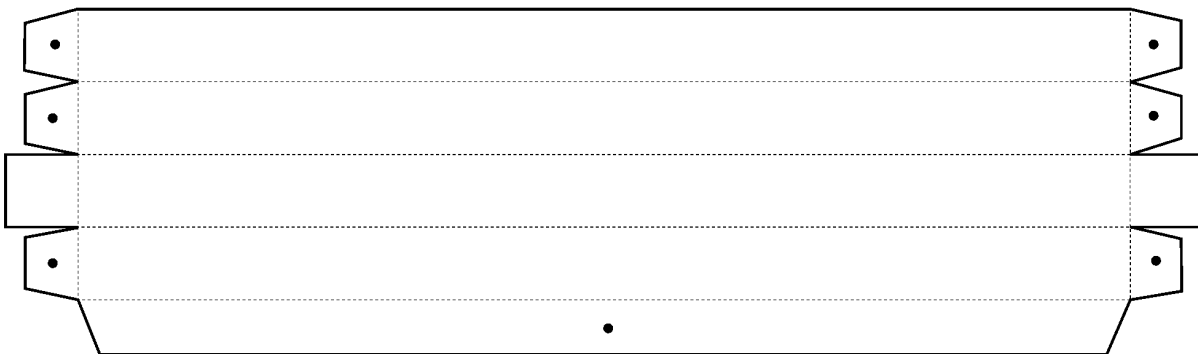

But a young man, Paul's nephew, overheard a conversation about these plans. He went immediately to see Paul to tell him of the plot. Paul then sent his nephew to tell the Roman commander, who believed what the boy told him.

The commander called for a large escort of two hundred soldiers, seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen to transport Paul to another city in the middle of the night. Paul was safe due to his nephew's courage!

part to glue on the back

frame parts