

The Parables of Jesus

The Good Samaritan

Based on Luke 10:25–37.

A teacher of the law tried to trap Jesus by asking Him, “How can I receive eternal life?”

Jesus asked, “What do the Scriptures say?”

The man answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and love your neighbor like you love yourself.”

“Right,” Jesus replied.

Looking for an excuse, the man asked, “Who is my neighbor?”

So Jesus told him this parable: “A man on a journey was attacked by robbers and left dying by the side of the road. An approaching priest saw the man, but he moved to the other side of the road. A Levite came by and also crossed over to walk on the other side of the road. Then a Samaritan man who passed by saw the injured man and felt sorry for him and helped him.”

Jesus asked the lawyer, “Which one acted like a neighbor to the wounded man?”

When the lawyer answered, “The man who was kind to him,” Jesus responded, “You should do the same.”
