

Gifts that Make Me Glad

From Jesus with love

Christmas is My birthday, and did you know that you can give Me gifts on My birthday? I know that giving and receiving gifts at Christmas is a special event for you. What you might not know is that it's important to Me to receive gifts at Christmas too. It makes Me very happy!

You may wonder what kinds of gifts I may want. That's a very good question. I don't need things like toys, clothes, computer games, or other gadgets. But there are some actions you can take that would make Me happy.

Here are some things you can do this Christmas that will be like putting a gift under the tree for Me:

- Take time with Me. Just like you enjoy playing with your friends and doing things with your parents, I like to do things with you, because you're My friend. When you pray or read Bible stories, I come and join you. This makes Me happy!

- Do kind things for others. When you try your best to be kind to your parents by listening to them and obeying them, or when you share your toys with your brother or sister, or let your friend choose what game to play, you're also making Me happy.

- Tell others about Me. If you have friends who don't know Me yet, you can tell them about Me, and teach them how they can pray and receive Me in their heart. Then I can be their friend too, and I really like that.

If you want to do something special for Me during this Christmas season, why not try these? I'll say "thank you" by making you feel happy inside and helping you to have lots of fun this Christmas.

Text adapted from Activated—Special Kids' Christmas Edition. Copyright © 2005 by Aurora Production AG, Switzerland. Used by permission.

Illustrated by Sandra Reign. Design by Christia Copeland.

Published on My Wonder Studio. Copyright © 2012 by The Family International