LEARNING TO WAIT

Jesus takes good care of me. He provides not only the things I need, but many things that I want too. He likes to fill my life with goodness and joy.

Sometimes when I pray and ask for something that I really want, it takes time for my request to be answered. That's because sometimes it's not the best time for me to receive that specific item. Perhaps I need to grow up and become more mature.

It's also good to learn how to patiently wait. If I have to wait to receive something, when I finally do get it, it makes that gift extra special to me.

I want to take good care of the gifts and blessings that fill up my life.
