

Lance's Revelation

There was a young man named Lance,
Who flew by the seat of his pants.
Till one day he found,
A solution profound:
Not leaving so much to chance.

He decided to plan ahead,
Not just from the top of his head.
And to his surprise,
It opened his eyes.
"Toward my goals, I am now sped!"

Lance's goals have begun to grow;
In everything he plans like a pro,
'Cause he learned the great lesson,
To keep on progressin',
Proactive planning's the way to go!

P.S.: He also found that his pants didn't wear out as fast.

"Good planning and hard work lead to prosperity, but hasty
shortcuts lead to poverty"
(Proverbs 21:5 NLT).
