

JESUS IS BORN

You always have a reason to smile,
Even if you're sad for a while.
You always have a reason to praise,
even on a sad day.

You've got to let others know How their hearts with joy
can overflow,
So tell everybody the secret to how real love can grow.

Tell the mommies and daddies,
the brothers and sisters,
The lasses and laddies,
the ladies and misters,
The rich and the poor,
tell the lonely and sad
The news that will make them all glad:

"Jesus is born.
"Jesus is born."
Tell the whole world,
"Jesus is born."

You never ever will be alone
If you're out, about, or at home.
'Cuz you will find He's always there, you don't have to be scared.

He made us all a heavenly place
Where we will see Him again face to face,
And He will always have a place there for you and me.

Tell the mommies and daddies, the brothers and sisters,
The lasses and laddies, the ladies and misters,
The rich and the poor, tell the lonely
and sad,
The news that will make them all glad:

"Jesus is born.
Jesus is born."
Tell the whole world,
"Jesus is born."
